

Secretary of State
Kim Wynn

What you need to know when filing with the Office of the Secretary of State

Corporations and Charities Division

What does the division do?

- Register 70% of all new Washington State businesses
- Record documents as presented by the customer
- Ministerial, do not have a regulatory role
- Hold public records for inspection

Other division programs include:

Charities, Apostilles, Trademarks, International Student Exchange, and others

Types of registrations

- Profit Corporations
- Non Profit Corporations
- Limited Liability Companies (LLC)
- Limited Partnerships (LP)
- Limited Liability Partnerships (LLP)
- Limited Liability Limited Partnerships (LLLLP)

Types of documents

- Formation Documents
- Amendments
- Mergers/Conversions
- Annual Reports
- Statements of Change

Things to consider

- Have you decided on a structure that fits your business, your taxes, and addresses your liabilities (seek legal advice)
- Have you generated bylaws for a corporation or an operating agreement for an LLC (seek legal advice)
- Business Name must be distinguishable from other registered entities

- Registered Agent (must be a physical address in Washington)
- Corporations and LLCs have options that must be designated with the IRS for taxes (s-corp/c-corp)
- Governing Persons have 120 days to be reported to the Secretary of State

Why file with OSOS first?

- Entity recognition
- Entity name
- UBI number

Potential problems

- Unregistered entities
- Duplicate/multiple UBI's
- Inconsistent information

REMEMBER!

- Registered agent must be kept current at all times, can be changed online for free (post office and BLS address changes do not apply)
- Annual report notices are mailed 45-60 day prior to the expiration
- Annual reports are due on or before the end of the anniversary month
